ARCHDEACONRY SESSIONS.

Scranton Auxiliary Met in Carbondale Yesterday.

The Woman's auxiliary of the Scran-ton archdeacoury met at Trinity Episopal church, Carbondale, yesterday, The services were opened at II o'clock with the celebration of holy commun ion, after which Archdencon Coxe, of Nanticoke, preached an eloquent ser mon. Luncheon was served at noon There were about fifty ladies from out of town present, representing seven-teen parishes. Most of the visitors were from Wilkes Harre, Scranton and Honesdale

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock the ousiness meeting was called to order Organizing Chairman Mrs. Rogers Israel, of Scranton, presided. Mrs. R. A. Sawyer, of Carbondale, was elected secretary pro tem. The amount raised for the Bishop Ruiison Memorial fund was reported as being $713,50. It was suggested that a diocesan paper be darted and the work of obtaining sub scriptions was placed in charge of the secretaries of the several parishes.

During the afternoon a very interest ing address was delivered by Rev. A. B. Hunter, head of the St. Augustine Colored school, of Raleigh, North Carolina. Many encouraging features concerning the effort to Christianize and educate the colored race were brought The auxiliary decided to hold its spring meeting in Honesdale.

PETITION IS REFUSED.

Cornelius Smith's Attempt to Contest Hon. F. W. Gunster Has Met with a Serious Set Back from Judge Simonton.

ounty, has handed down an opinion ismissing the petition of Cornelius Smith, of this city, for a mandamus compel the attorney general of the date to certify Mr. Smith's petition o the governor.

The petition asked for the institution of a contest against Hon. F. W. Gunster for the position of additional law judge of this county. Judge Simonton has dismissed the petition at the cost of Mr. Smith. A portion of Judge Simonton's lengthy opinion is as follows: As it thus clearly appears that the petitioner has no case it would be a vain thing for the attorrey general to trans-mit his petition to the governor, and for him to direct a court to be constituted is try the intended contest. In Com. cz rel Burns vs. Handley, 166 Pa., 25, the facts were that 4,500 votes had been cast for the relator for the office of judge of the court of common pleas of Lackawanna county, but the court refused to comut, these votes on the ground that ther as no vacancy in the office, whereupo show cause why a mandamus should not be issued compelling the court to compute the votes. The Supreme court. examining the several acts of assemble elating to the matter and finding that there was no vacancy in the office of judge in said county, refused to grant a mandamus compelling the counting of the votes for the petiticier, saving "The ballots cast for Ira H. Burns at he general election of 1883 were, therefore, without warrant or authority of law, and we can discover no useful purpase to be observed in obliging the judges of the court of common pleas of Lacka-wanna county to compute them. We are therefore of the opinion that the rule ould be discharged." On the same principle, as the petitioner in the case before us has no legal ground on which to sustain a contest, and to institute one would cause needless vexation in the case just cited, the well setlied rule that the writ of mandamus, as is said in Com. vs. Canal Commissioners, 2 P. & W., 517, is "for use only in extraordinary cases, where there would other erwise be a failure of justice." Com. vs. Henry, 49 Pr. 558, and James vs. the Commissioners, 13 Pa. 55. The role to show cause is discharged at the costs of the petitioner,

GRAVE CHARGE AGAINST ERIN

HE IS NOW ON TRIAL BEFORE JUDGE EDWARDS.

Jennie Shimer, the Twelve-Year-Old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shimer, Who Reside Near the Driving Park, Testified That the Wife and Three Children - Other Cases Tried Yesterday.

A most disgusting case was tried before Judge H. M. Edwards in court room No. 2 yesterday afternoon. That the court room was crowded goes without saying; it always is when a case of salacious character is being heard. Jacob Erin, a man forty years of age, who has a wife and three children, was on trial for criminally assaulting Jennie, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shimer. The Shimers and the Erins were neighbors and resided near the Driving Park. The girl is rather large for her age and has a sweet, innecent face. As she related her terrible story yesterday she was unconscious of the horror her words inspired in the breasts of those who heard her. Apparently her knowledge of the world is limited, even for a girl of her tender years. Her mother testified that Jennie was 12 years of age on Jan. 4. The offenses with which Erin is charged were committed last

In the same community in which the Erins and Shimers reside a man named Judge J. W. Simonton, of Dauphin Grant Shafer lived last summer. He is a single man and was friendly with Early in the fall Shafer was found near the Driving Park in a com-promising attitude with Minnie Johnm, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, who reside in that neighborhood. He was arrested and at a hearing before Alderman Fid-ler, of the First ward, a frightful story

ERIN IMPLICATED.

It appeared that Shafer had attempted to assault Minnie Johnson and had assaulted Jennie Shimer several times. The girls at the hearing told that Jacob been indicted for the offenses against both girls and the cases are on the list for this week. Erin was indicted for his assaults on the Shimer girl and a warrant was also sworn out for him at the instance of the Johnsons, but has not yet been served, as Erin has been in jail since his arrest at the instance of Jennie Shimer's mother,

When Erin was called for trial yes terday afternoon he took a seat at the defendant's table with his attorneys, Vosburg & Dawson. His victim sat at the commonwealth's table with her mother and District Attorney Jones who conducted the prosecution, Erin is a butcher by occupation and decent enough in appearance. His wife and one of his daughters, who is about 12 years of age, sat directly behind him during the trial. Mrs. Erin seemed to feel the disgrace much more keenly than her husband, and nervously bit at her finger nails all after on. He had done wrong, he said, but if they would promise not to prosecute him he would be the best of men from that time on. Court had to adjourn at 4 o'clock because of the absence of Dr. Jenkins, of North Scranton, who examined the girl immediately after Erin's arrest. He will be heard when court opens this mony on the part of the commonwealth. Court yesterday made an order to permit the examination of the child today by a physician selected by made in the presence of Dr. Jenkins.

AND A NEW BANK

WITH A POSSIBILITY OF A SEC-OND NEW BANK BUILDING.

John T. Richards Is Organizing a Company to Conduct a Banking Business-Lackawanna Trust and Safe Deposit Company Proposes to Erect a Handsome and Imposing Structure on the Site of Its Present Building-It Will Be of Classic Design and Surmounted by a Dome.

Scranton is to have a new bank, a new bank building and possibly a second new bank building.

A company, in which the moving spirit is John T. Richards, former cashier of the Merchants' and Mechanics' bank, is to give the city its new banking institution. The Lackawanna Trust and Safe Deposit company is to creet the new bank building. The possible second new bank building is to be put up by the new banking institution. As to the new banking institution little as yet can be stated. Mr. Richards is in New York city and will not be back until tomorrow or Friday, his secretary announced, when an interview with him was yesterday sought at his office in the Mears' building.

ORGANIZATION UNDER WAY.

E. B. Sturges, who was mentioned the incorporation of the borough of Old | as one of the directors of the new institution, referred The Tribune man to 1899, as the time for hearing all parties | Mr. Richards. "He is the one who can give you what information there is to There is a movement on foot to cre- be given," said Mr. Sturges. "I do ate the borough of Old Forge out of not know what progress has been made a portion of Old Forge township, but as the contemplated company has not those opposed to the movement have as yet had a meeting." Mr. Sturges filed exceptions to the petition asking would not say that the new banking institution was an assured thing.

The new bank building for the Deposit and Trust company, however, is an assured thing. At the annual meeting Monday, when all the old officers were re-elected and very gratifying reports received, the directorate took up the question of a new building, which has been in contemplation for some time, and unanimously favored it. The work will probably be commenced

TO BE BUILT ON SAME SITE.

The new building will replace the esent one occupied by the bank at 494 Lackawanna avenue. A front-elevation sketch, submitted to the directors, and by them generally approved, shows a building after the style of the Scranton Savings bank building, but surmounted by an immense dome the full width of the building. Scranton will have no more beautiful and imposing structure. The officers of the Lackawanna Trust and Safe Deposit company are: J. ler, treasurer; J. Benj. Dimmick. William Connell, Henry Belin, jr., George Sanderson, R. T. Black, P. J. Horan, T. C. Snover, C. H. Welles, C. S. Wegton, Cenrad Schroeder, Shepherd Ay ars, directors,
